A statistical Analysis for the Sudanese Certificate Result 2020 - 2021-03-17

By: Hassan Baba

Feb. 27th 2021

The results announced by the manager of the Sudanese Exams department in the absence of the ministers has put a huge number of questions and exclamation marks.

Away from that the results reflect a real rare and completely hard to understand pattern of distribution around any standard statistical model. Here we will try to explain how and why.

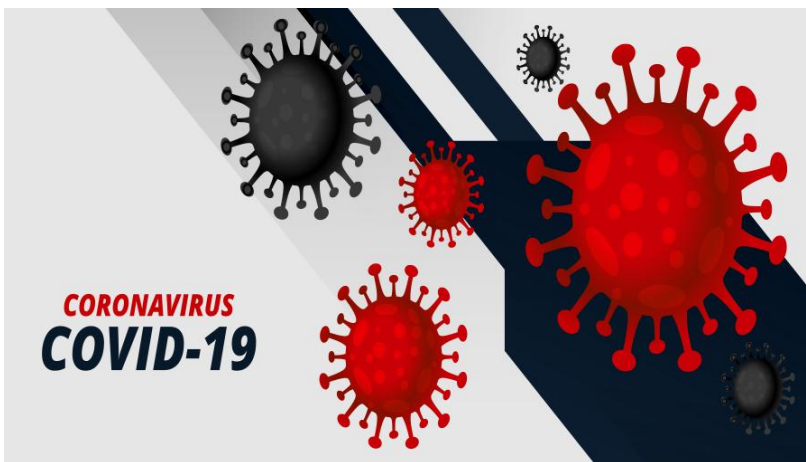

Impact of COVID 19 in Sudan related to educational sectors and the role of online education to reduce the impact
